

Middle East Librarians Association's Annual Meeting
November 6, 1980

The Library of Congress
The Jefferson Building
Whittall Pavillion

8:30 - 9:00 A.M.

Coffee & Doughnuts

9:00 - 10:00 A.M.

Dr. Muhammad Alwan, The Department of Middle Eastern Studies, Harvard University, will speak on collecting out-of-print Middle Eastern materials.

10:00 - 10:30 A.M.

Mr. Michael Albin, Field Director, Library of Congress, Cairo, will speak on the Dollar based Library of Congress Acquisitions Program in Cairo.

10:30 - 11:00 A.M.

Mr. Joseph H. Howard, The Library of Congress, Processing Department will speak on the topics: Minimal Level Cataloging, and the inclusion of Arabic, Persian, Hebrew, Yiddish in the proposed registry index format for the National Union Catalog.

11:00 - 11:45 A.M.

Mr. George Hobart, The Library of Congress, Print and Photograph Division, will speak on the material in his division, of interest to Middle East Librarians.

11:45 - 12:00

Mr. Fawzi Abdulrazak, Middle East Department, Harvard College Library will speak on the Moroccan cooperative Acquisitions Project.

12:00 - 1:30

Lunch at the Library of Congress Cafeteria.

1:30 - 3:00 P.M.

Business meeting

Dr. David Partington, Middle East Department, Harvard College Library, President of Middle East Librarians Association.

Christian Filstrup, New York Public Library, Editor of MELA Notes.

Marsha Hamilton McClintock, Ohio State University Main Library, Secretary-Treasurer, Middle East Librarians Association.

Frances Morton, Library of Congress, Persian Cataloger, ALA Liaison.

3:00 - 5:00 P.M.

Tours